

I Remember Christmas

W/M: Elisabeth Lohninger

A

In the si - lence be - tween snowflakes in the candle on the window sill in the 6

tug at my heart that cries for we're a - part I know that Christmas is here As the tree stands in the corner full of light and color and heartbreak Your voice on the phone far away and alone re - minds me of Christmas at home I know this is just an old memory surely things were not as I recall but

10

14

18

22

who can blame me for this sentimental mood when it's Christmas all around In the stillness of this memory I can hear the voices singing of 30

26

joy and of love and hope in our hearts now that Christmas is here.
